Al Quraan and Allah's clearest declarations:

- 1) And whoever seeks a Deen (Religion) other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him, and in the Hereafter he will be one the losers.

- Surah Ale Imran, 3:85.

- 2) Let not the believers take the disbelievers as Auliya (friends, allies, protectors, supporters, helpers) instead of the believers, and whoever does that cuts himself off from Allah in everything (will never be helped by Allah in any way) – unless it be to protect yourselves against them in this way. But Allah warns you to beware of Him (His Punishment), and to Allah is the final return (is all journey's end).

- Surah Ale Imran, 3:28.

- 3) O you who believe! Take not the Jews and the Christians as Auliya (friends, allies, protectors, supporters, helpers), they are but Auliya of each other. And if any amongst you takes them (as Auliya), then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allah guides not those people who are the Zalimun (kafirs, polytheists, wrong-doers and unjust).

- Surah Al Maidah, 5:51.

- 4) You see many of them taking the disbelievers as their Auliya (friends, allies, protectors, supporters, helpers). Evil indeed is that which their ownelves (passions) make them do; for that (reason) Allah's Wrath has fallen upon them, and in torment (sufferings) they shall abide permanently.

- Surah Al Maidah, 5:80.

- 5) And had they believed in Allah, and in the Prophet (Muhammad Sm) and in what has been revealed to him, never would they have taken them (the disbelievers, the deniers of the truth) as Auliya (friends, allies, protectors, supporters, helpers), but many of them are the Fasiqun (rebellious, disobedient, iniquitous).

- Surah Al Maidah, 5:81.

- 6) O you who believe! Do not take the disbelievers as Auliya (friends, allies, protectors, supporters, helpers) instead of believers. Do you wish to offer Allah a manifest proof against yourselves (a clear proof of your guilt)?

- Surah Ann Nisa, 4:144.

- 7) Do you think that you will enter Paradise before Allah tests (takes cognizance of) those of you who fought (in His cause) and (also) tests (takes cognizance of) those who are As Sabirun (the patient)?

- Surah Ale Imran, 3:142.

- 8) Those who believe fight in the cause of Allah, and those who disbelieve fight in the cause of Taghut (Saitan, evil, devil, rebellious, Allah's enemy). So fight you against the friends of Shaitan. Ever feeble (weak) indeed is the plot (guile) of Saitan.

- Surah Ann Nisa, 4:76.

- 9) And those who disbelieve are allies of one another, (and) unless you [(Muslims of the whole world collectively) do not do so/act likewise {i.e. become allies, as one united block under one Khalifah (a chief Muslim ruler for the whole Muslim world) to make victorious Allah's religion of Islamic Monotheism that is Tawheed}], there will be Fitnah (wars, battles, kufrs, polytheism) and oppression on the earth, and a great mischief and corruption (appearance of shirk, kufr and polytheism).

- Surah Al Anfal, 8:73.

- 10) And say: "Haq (i.e. Truth, Islamic Monotheism, Tawheed or this Quraan or light or Jihad against polytheists) has come and Batil (kufr, falsehood, i.e. Saitan or polytheism) has vanished (withered away or perished). Surely Batil is ever bound to vanish.

- Surah Al Isra, 17:81.

Introduction

This is a brief analysis of a turbulent and tumultuous drama; a deep insight about the inside facts of an episode manufactured as a planned conspiratorial cover up. This has brought apparent bonanza and ultimate bondage for the masterminds behind it. This is about the ‘failed state’ – America, and the failure of most boasted American free democracy. Indeed, these are related to the power game on the global arena in the post-Cold War situation, especially during the new rise of Islam, sharp progress of Islamization and very fast growth of Muslims as a community, at least numerically all over the globe.

The present book may act as an eye-opener both for the Muslims and the logical, sensible non-Muslims all over the world. This is a testimony which presents the reader a total canvas, though in a nutshell, of the global surroundings. It brings to the forefront the dynamics, politics and power game of the global theatre in the post-Cold War situation reflecting the demise of socialism, communism, secularism and passing away of the so-called Western capitalist free democracy. In the context of present Unipolar world, under the self-styled leadership of Decaying Giant – USA, the major thrust of global power game is to arrest the speedy resurgence of Islam and rise of the Muslims and re-Islamization both across the transnational boundary and the continents. West, under the umbrella of imperialist Christian-Crusader America, is now feeling threatened with the rise of Islam as a world view and social system. Simultaneously, with the erosion and decay of Western social system, cultural fabrics, secular philosophy, and its most boasted so-called democratic governance and political-ethical norms, the entire west has fallen down into a shaky position. Its sense of direction, basic identity and integrity – everything is almost lost. Particularly, gimmick of American democracy has proved itself as garbage. Abuse of state power, curtailment of rights, assault on democratic practices, unprecedented espionage over citizens, passive citizenry, rejection of secularism, hyper racism, and state-sponsored terrorism along with illicit contracts, secret deals, rent-seeking, election rigging, and narrow partisanship of the Court of Justice etc. have made American democracy irrational and illusive.

This is exactly the scenario nowadays found in the countries of the west, with a little bit difference here and there, which has developed a peculiar kind of enemy-perception all over the Western world, not to speak of America only. America and West have searched out their common enemy, but merely as a foregone conclusion. This enemy is Islam and essentially for that matter, Muslims. The Crusader American Establishment, in toto supported by the non-Muslim camp, with Britain, Israel and India as the most active so-called allied forces, have discovered the common enemy camp, started up and forthwith accelerated their “War on Terror” on the fourth gear, just at the beginning of the 21st century. They have been operating on the plea of saving free bourgeois world from the lone but most potential sworn enemy camp – meaning, obviously, Islam and Muslims. Under the pretext of 9/11 attack on Twin Tower World Trade Center and on Pentagon, they have in fact imposed Crusade – a total war against Islam and Muslims. Starting from false media propaganda war and economic embargo, they are going even to the extent of waging direct aggression over the Muslim countries. Aggression and occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq, and making hit list of many other Muslim countries vividly demonstrate their ulterior motives.

Maligning Islam and Muslims through ‘information terrorism’ is one of their principal instruments. Capture and plunder of oil, gas and other mineral resources of the Muslim countries all over the world on the one hand, and control their geo-politics, blue-water, super imposed states, fragile governmental systems, power elites, markets through direct intervention, war and occupation on absolutely false charges (possession of WMD and deadly weapons, development of nuclear energy, instigating terrorism etc.) on the other, are at present, the two intertwined methods accepted and applied by self-styled global leader – America. These are being done both for exploitation and simultaneously to control both the world power politics and stop resurgence of Islam and rise of Muslims. GATT, WTO and globalization are also used as mechanisms in expanding hegemony of the West, especially of America over Muslim world.

Islamic Ummah and Muslims all over the globe will have to come out of the clutch of this demonic and devilish force, and emancipate both themselves and the suffering humanity of the entire world. It is in this context, an analysis of Bush Administration, the role of CIA, FBI and Pentagon; the role of American Tycoons and Neo-Con groups; the role of American intellectual think tanks, and the paradigm shift and 'u' turn of Samuel P. Huntington should be understood.

Let this present book be an upright instrument of intellect, and a real friend-in-Jihad to more than 150 crores Muslims living in 58 Muslim-dominated countries including Kosovo in the list as the latest. Let this book be a clear Warner for the Muslims residing in non-Muslim West and for rest of the suffering humanity, by the Grace of the Supreme Lord – The Almighty Allah Rabbul Alameen. Aameen. Summa Aameen.

Funeral of American Democracy Bush Huntington and Establishment

Samuel P. Huntington (Professor, Political Science, Harvard University, USA, & Presidential Adviser, & Director, John M. Olin Institute, & National and International Security Planner) in his book Who Are We? America's Great Debate (London: Simon & Schuster, 2004) vehemently supports the American official version of the events of 11 September 2001. The explanations given by Bush administration regarding Pentagon's Phantom Plane attacks on Twin Tower of the World Trade Center and total collapse of the buildings, the attack on Pentagon etc. are taken by Huntington as terrorist attacks of Usama Bin Laden without minimum inquiry and verification of any relevant documents. He has no doubt about the so-called Bin Laden Plot, because, Usama Bin Laden ended America's search for an enemy and that arch enemy is Islam and essentially, for that matter, Muslims (Who, pp. 259-264, 336-340). But ultimately Bin Laden Plot and Laden mythology and the American official version of 9/11 drama do not stand up to rigorous examination and analysis. There are sufficient documents, proofs and reasons to believe that 9/11 incidents were definitely some sort of conspiracy cover up. They were nothing more. There are thousands of anomalies, lots of contradictions, uncertainties and oddities. Any honest analyst shall see no reason to go on believing the lies put forward by the Pentagon and White House officials. Many events yet remain mysterious.

Even after immediate denial by Bin Laden, he was put to propaganda guillotine. As he was in Afghanistan which was administered under the Islamic Shariah authority of Mullah Umar, the country was immediately attacked and occupied by US-led force. Several millions of people were killed and almost entire Afghanistan was heavily bombarded.

The inner significance of Afghanistan tragedy should be realized if we, the Muslims all over the world, expect to understand the global politics and power game and thereby give united effort to get rid of American and Western imperialism. To overthrow the Shariah based Islamic Rule and shatter the Islamization process of Afghanistan – these were the principal agenda of America. But along with this the construction of oil and gas pipe line across the long territory of Afghanistan was another most important issue.

There is enough evidence to prove that Twin Tower was destructed on 9/11 of 2001 just to vilify Afghanistan making it a prey to American demon. Accordingly Afghanistan was attacked and ravaged by America on the plea of catching only one person suspected, not at all proved responsible for 9/11 incidents. The American official explanations given after 9/11 could not satisfy plenty of independent observers. This was taken by many as inside job of the American power structure.

In 1997 four years prior to the episode of 2001, one Taliban Representative Team was given proposal in the Headquarter of Unicol at Texas that vast reserve of oil and gas pumping out from Kaspian Sea and from the earth of Kazakhstan, Tadjikistan, Uzbekistan, Kyrgystan and some other countries would be taken and supplied by establishing a pipe line through the territory of Afghanistan. But the Talibans did not agree to this proposal and conditions set for the purpose by Unicol. At that time America showed very strong reaction because of the negative answer given by Taliban government of Afghanistan led by Mullah Umar. America immediately threatened the Talibans saying that if you do not accept this gold carpet proposal, we would drown your country under the carpet of bombs. Asian Times published a report on this issue at that time. The year was 1997, and 9/11 drama was staged by America in 2001. By consequent aggression and occupation of Afghanistan, they really demonstrated that such a savage and dangerous ultimatum was not a matter of joke. They meant business. The destruction of Afghan national unity was done through conspiracy, and simultaneously fratricidal factionalisms had to be developed with the help of fifth columnists to make their ulterior goal a success.

However, “War on the Evil Axis”, “War on Terrorism” was declared by America only to stigmatize and victimize Islam and Muslims all over the world. WMD was not at all discovered in Iraq. But this oil-rich and Islamic culture and civilization based Muslim country was nakedly attacked and occupied by US led force supported by Britain, Israel and other non-Muslim Christian states. Millions of innocent people including children and women were killed. Saddam, the enemy of non-Muslim Crusader Camp, was overthrown. He had to face ultimately a farcical camera trial staged by American occupation force and was put to death on the Eid Day of the Muslims.

The American and World Capitalism, the American War Lords, the American Tycoons, the profit mongering top brass of civil and military officials, the Jewish Interest Groups, the media empire, the Pentagon – all combining together, found it a compulsion in the post-Cold War era to fight the most potential newly recognized old enemy i.e. the Muslims. They had the common agenda to stop the resurgence of Islam and re-Islamization. Moreover, oil, wealth, and military and geopolitical strategic needs also prompted them all to start a new war against Islam and Muslims all over the globe in the name of “War on Terrorism”. In reality this was an all out war against Islam, Muslims and their resources and countries.

Noam Chomsky, in a series of interviews given in 2001, has rightly analyzed that in the absence of communism, America has targeted Islam and Muslims as the arch enemy and only potential threat to America, Western World and Christianity. The propagation of “humanitarian intervention” over Muslim territories is untrue. In fact US intervention is aggression. It is total war. Chomsky says, ‘At first the US used the word “crusade”, but it was quickly pointed out that if they hope to enlist their allies in the Islamic world, it would be a serious mistake for obvious reasons. The rhetoric therefore shifted to “war” (Noam Chomsky, 9-11, Dehradun: Nataraj Publications, 2002, p. 14).

“War on Terror” is mere hypocrisy. Chomsky comments, ‘the proper term would be “crime” – perhaps “crime against humanity”, as Robert Fisk has stressed’ (Chomsky, 2002, p. 15). Chomsky says that US hegemony, its political and economic interests and domination, and super imposed particular form of investor-rights “globalization” over others have created strong reaction especially among the Muslims all over the globe.

After 9/11 inside job was masterminded and instructed by US establishment, it started a false propaganda against Islam, and Muslims describing the Muslims as fundamentalists and terrorists and Islam was dubbed as fundamentalism and terrorism. But Chomsky categorically gives his verdict, ‘certainly not’ (Chomsky, 2002, p. 21). He declares that ‘the US, in fact, is one of the most extreme religious fundamentalist cultures in the world’ (Chomsky, 2002, p. 21).

Chomsky in another interview says: ‘If we want to consider this question seriously, we should recognize that in much of the world the U.S. is regarded as a leading terrorist state, and with good reason. We might bear in mind, for example, that in 1986 the U.S. was condemned by World Court for “unlawful use of force” (international terrorism) and they vetoed a Security Council resolution calling on all states meaning the U.S. to adhere to international law. Only one of countless examples' (Chomsky, 2002, p. 23). Chomsky is asked for his comment in another separate interview regarding the U.S. as a "leading terrorist state". He clearly and categorically replies that 'The United States continues international terrorism' (Chomsky, 2002, p. 44).

But, there was another very important reason for which also this bloody stage of 9/11 was being set. It was the crisis of American democracy and correspondingly the crisis of American bourgeoisie, economic structure and administration which brought the Pentagon's phantom plane engaged in fugitive type action. The death of civil rights and demise of American democracy were to be ensured at all cost. Hence the 9/11 theatre was staged. George Bush administration faked this 9/11 attack on the WTC and Pentagon to cover up certain serious internal crises of American democracy and administration. Thus "Penttbomb" (a contraction of Pentagon-Twin Towers-Bomb) circus took place and from the funeral pyres a so-called holy war started its heinous journey.

The 9/11 drama was propagated by American media which is almost and always subservient to the official agenda and invariably linked with the basic interest of American capitalism. Abandoning the notion of objectivity and even the idea of providing a public space where the problems are discussed and debated, the predestined and well calculated 9/11 after effects were in operation. Edward Herman, Professor of Political Science at the University of Pennsylvania commented that it is a scandal that reveals the existence of a system of propaganda, not of serious media so essential in a democratic society (see, Thierry Meyssan, 9/11 The Big Lie, London: Carnot Publishing Ltd. 2002).

However, the US Congress decided to legislate, according to the pious wish of George Bush and Pentagon, the USA PATRIOT Act. Congress adopted the policy of Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act (the acronym is USA PATRIOT Act). This Act is new and extraordinary in the sense that it suspends various civil liberties for a period of four years in order to provide the scope and enable the US Government with the means of fighting terrorism in an effective manner. Bush's four years tenure of office is well covered by this Act. It also includes the electoral period prior to a second mandate for Bush.

Though, the electoral scenario is being changed now, due to the pressure and consequent compulsion arising out of different forces operating in cumulative impersonal perspectives both at America and abroad. However, Bush got the office of Presidency through election-rigging and now he gets the support of PATRIOT Act. Bush is now safe from internal enemies – the political opposition, the Congressional criticism, the volatile public opinion, and the scathing criticism of the press. The said Act represses the opposition, the terrorists, the Muslim ‘fundamentalists’ and their sympathizers. It gives a very wide definition of terrorism and violence and brings everything and everyone under its jurisdiction. By this Act, the American FBI and US Authority can interfere with any of the activities of any person, group or institution both inside and outside USA. In the process the name sake democracy of other countries are also shattered and their civil liberties are also jeopardized on the plea to check terrorists and terrorism.

Thierry Meyssan has rightly analyzed the situation that is being brought by the US Authority as a result of 9/11 drama. He says:

“Since September 11, the government has enacted legislation, adopted policies, and threatened procedures that are not consistent with the established laws and values and would have been unthinkable before, wrote the prestigious New York Review of Books. Glorifying in its patriotic mystique, the land of free expression and political transparency has fallen back on an extensive conception of raison d’Etat and military secrecy which is being applied to all sectors of society.

The official versions of the events of September 11 do not justify such a sudden change. If the enemies are poor wretched hiding out in the caves of Afghanistan, why fear conversations between colleagues within the confines of the Pentagon? How is it conceivable that a handful of terrorists might be able to gather and treat scattered information on arms purchases and deduce from them the plans of the US Army? Why suspend the normal functioning of institution and deny members of Congress, even behind close doors, information that is indispensable to democratic governance?

And if the official story, according to which the attacks were perpetrated by foreign terrorists, is true, why block any Congressional inquiry or any press investigation?

Are we not witness of a change of political regime that was programmed well before September 11?" (Thierry Meyssan, 9/11 The Big Lie, London: Carnot Publishing Ltd., 2002, pp. 90-91).

Thus the truth is coming out in broad day light that 9/11 attack was an inside job. Well-researched books are being printed both in America and abroad. These are based on facts, testimonies and authentic information. Even documents published by the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) under compulsion, and the statements and interviews given by top brass of the American civilian and military leaders to international press have been gathered and verified in these writings. Some references may be given here.

The bitter truth about the savage American ulterior motive and plan to malign and control Islam and Muslims are revealed in front of the European Camp even. We can record a glaring example now. Francisco Cosiga, a very famous ex-President of Italy has categorically pointed that CIA and Mosad were directly responsible behind 9/11 Twin Tower attack. These two espionage organizations planned and conducted this clearly manifested inside job. On January 13, 2008 Francisco Cosiga expressed his firm opinion in an interview with the Italian newspaper Coreri

Dela Sera. Press TV also made a news item based on this interview. Cosiga said, entire world know that Al-Qaida attacked the World Trade Center on 9/11 of 2001. There was even a fake confession in the name of Al-Qaida. But the real truth has gradually come to surface. American CIA and Israeli Mosad were behind the attack and they masterminded this episode. Cosiga said, the most modern and most complex technology which was used in this attack is being controlled only by these two espionage organizations. Cosiga moreover disclosed that all the espionage organizations of entire Europe and that of America are now very much certain about the above-mentioned information.

Why would the American espionage organization attack its own country? – Answering this question, the Italian ex-President opined that increasing strength of the Muslim world was to be controlled and sized up and for this reason the aforesaid conspiratorial attack was directed. Moreover, to bring both the country's and world public opinion in its favour, America planned this attack. It may be mentioned here that Cosiga even in 2001 expressed his doubt about the much propagated attack done by Al-Qaida. Cosiga authored a book titled as Nine Eleven Synthetic Terror Made in the USA. In this book Cosiga thoroughly discussed how American CIA supplied both the high powered chemical and latest technology and how the CIA itself recruited the persons conducting the attack.

Another reference may be given here to make our thesis stronger regarding both the conspiracy cover-up of the American administration and the caricature of American democracy. Recently, Oscar Award winner French movie star Marion Cortilard has given clear statement and expressed her opinion on 9/11 incidents. She has commented that on 11 September 2001 the destructions those were held in New York and Washington were done by America itself, willfully and in a planned manner. This statement of Cortilard, expressed very recently in French media, has created much sensation.

Thirty two year-old Cortilard received Oscar this year (2008) under the category of best actress. She has got the prestigious prize for her excellent acting in the role (character) of singer Edith Piaff in 'La V Ann Rose' movie.

In her interview Marion Cortilard directly accused American government for masterminding and organizing 9/11 incidents. Daily Telegraph of Britain, quoting the statements of Cortilard, has made a report where she has claimed: it seems to me that we have been given some lies. Cortilard has said, World Trade Center was an old-fashioned 'money sucker' (financial exploiter). Instead of its modernization, easier solution was to destroy it. Marion Cortilard has raised question and said that for same reason other buildings were also attacked. How those buildings could be destructed within twinkle of an eye? Most probably in Spain, after a similar Plane attack on a building, it was under fire and was burning for more than 24 hours. That building neither broke down nor collapsed. But, during 9/11 incident, Twin Tower of New York was vanished under dust within few minutes. G News Online has reproduced news based on Marion Cortilard's statement of 03rd March 2008.

This is how the real truth is revealed and unearthed by sensible human beings, who are not at all interested to be a party with the American government in their dirty and conspiratorial politics to kill many allegorical birds with one stone at the cost of destroying others and slaughtering humanity.

This 9/11 conspiratorial cover-up was masterminded, organized and implemented by President George Bush administration, with the help of CIA and Pentagon, to achieve very many objectives, such as:

- i) This is being done to arrest the very fast rate of resurgence of Muslims and re-Islamization all over the globe in the post-Cold War vacuum.
- ii) Fugitive Al-Qaida, and the Muslims as a community and Islam as a religion are to be demonstrated as the arch enemies and greatest political threats against America, West and Christianity.
- iii) To plunder vast reserve of oil, gas and other mineral resources of the Muslims countries all over the World; to keep undue influence over their territories for geographic, strategic, military and political significance and gain; to maintain and to tame them within limits as desired by America.

- iv) To demonstrate Islam as ‘fundamentalism’, ‘terrorism’, and ‘religion of sword’, and Muslims as ‘fundamentalists’, ‘terrorists’, ‘intolerant’, ‘trouble mongers’, ‘attackers’, ‘heroin smugglers’, ‘uncivilized’, ‘indigestible’ etc. American target is: Give the Muslims all bad names and attack them wherever you find your arch enemies.
- v) Falsehood and concoction-based stories and absolute lies are to be supplied as mechanisms to shatter and destroy the true peace-loving image of Islam and Muslims. By using powerful media propaganda to malign Islam and Muslims is the number 1 function of the American and Western media. In fact, the Western world at large and the American establishment in particular always patronize ‘information terrorism’ as the most effective instrument for conducting psychological warfare against Islam and Muslims. Mere bluffs, trickery and fraudulent practices are their well accepted principles.

- vi) To attack and occupy Muslim countries on the plea of keeping peace. Absolutely false charges are framed. To snatch their wealth, destroy their territories and make the entire Muslim population horrified, the American demon and their allies are leaving no stone unturned. A reign of terror is being established all over the world, particularly in the minds of the Muslims.
- vii) Muslims are to be divided into different contending groups as traditional, fundamentalist, liberal, modern, militant, recalcitrant etc. and factional infighting amongst them would have to be developed perpetually, making their top most sense of unity as Ummah illusive in practical field. Moreover, branding the real Muslims as enemies of the so-called Free World is a permanent fraudulent propaganda of the West under the self-styled leadership of USA.

- viii) A new strategy called 'Muslim Outreach Policy' is being discovered and prescribed by America. This dangerously harmful policy envisaged by US is in the process of implementation more or less throughout the Muslim world. The ignorant, selfish and corrupt governmental leadership of different Muslim countries have very easily swallowed this 'deadly medicine' manufactured and imposed by America. This 'Muslim Outreach Policy' would help taming the Muslims all over the globe and 'help' (?) the Muslims rebuild themselves according to the standard of 'Islam' and 'Muslims' set by the Christian Crusader US.
- ix) To justify and implement the repressive mechanisms and especially the long-drawn out and planned PATRIOT Act, which is in full operation both at home and abroad, principally over the Muslims. The Muslims must join the band-wagon of Decaying Giant America. Otherwise they shall be treated as sworn enemies. The principle that is followed regarding Muslims is: 'Either you are with us, or you are our enemy', as nakedly declared by Bush.

- x) Overcoming grave crisis of democracy. To suppress the political and other oppositions within America and to check the erosion and illusive trends of American democracy.
- xi) To mislead country's public opinion as well as world public opinion.
- xii) To maintain the fading integrity and solidarity of American nation; to preserve the leadership of Unipolar global order; to bring back national identity, pride and unity of the Americans which are eroding at a faster speed in the first decade of this new millennium.
- xiii) To remove the disunity among the populace and to bring back their sense of American nationalism, the American Establishment has felt ardent need of an enemy in the absence of communism. Islam and Muslims are being discovered as the arch enemy camp. Old Crusade theory is now once again in full-fledged operations. So-called secularism and the so-called free democracy as well are being replaced by concocted Bible and falsehood-based Christianity. Now the American Establishment, their intellectual Think Tanks, and their economic tycoons, and Neo-con groups as well want the rebirth of religion, but based on Christianity only. They now give open declaration to live with God, Cross and Christianity, both in the social surroundings and in the state affairs. They see a day-dream and hope to build-up a worldwide Christendom under the singular leadership of American demon.

Now, there are enough reasons to believe that S. P. Huntington is also an intellectual architect and he had also the prior knowledge about this special characteristic change of regime and curtailment of rights, and death of democracy long before September 11. Any keen observer can get this notion from Huntington's 'Clash', 'Remaking' and 'Shaping' theories forecasted long before (See, Samuel P. Huntington, The Clash of Civilizations and Remaking of the World Order, 1996; Huntington, Culture Matters: How Values Shape Human Progress, 2000 for the first two and the last of the theories respectively).

In these theories he has evidently foreseen and discussed this sort of change by describing the deep crisis that democracy has been facing both at home and abroad. He also supports the rise of religion and replacement of Christianity in place of secularism. Though he has prescribed secularism and democracy for other countries, especially for the Muslim countries, but he opts for religious politics and administration for his own constituency – America. And in 'Identity Search' theory given in Who Are We?, published after 9/11 stage managed show, Huntington accepts Laden drama as axiomatic truth. He now supports the cause of Bush and finds Christianity and America-led World Christendom as the solution. He wants to stop the resurgence of Islam and re-Islamization. He becomes a strong proponent of “War on Terrorism” and takes pride as a crusader.

Huntington in his intellectual travel gets the support of his fellow brethren. Daniel Patrick Moynihan describes the Western and global situation as Pandemonium (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1993). Another support comes from Zbigniew Brzezinski. He is Huntington’s old colleague and a co-author. Brzezinski’s new venture is analyzing the world situation as Out of Control (New York: Scribner, 1993).

That democracy has fallen into the gravest crisis is authenticated by two more distinguished authorities along with Huntington. Another and the latest one in this line of argument is the ex-Chairman of US Federal Reserve – Allen Greenspan. The name of his book is: The Age of Turbulence: Adventures in a New World, (Penguin, 2007).

This is how Moynihan, Brzezinski, and Greenspan, with a little bit difference, form a ‘birds of the same feather’ perspective. Because, in the ultimate analysis, all of them belonging to the same den with Huntington which conform themselves with American Giant Imperialist Establishment. Our present author Huntington – the top ranking intellectual of American Think Tanks finds disturbance in the mechanism, shows the built-in-defects, analyses the crisis of democracy and supports the cause of “War on Terrorism” directly or indirectly. Hence, they all give recognition to the official version of 9/11 episode and describe it as a Bin Laden Plot and eventually reconfirm Islam and Muslims as the greatest enemies. In this way, they all converge themselves on a singular point with Bush, White House, CIA, FBI and Pentagon, and also with American Imperialistic Capitalism. Indeed America, at the start of 21st century, reflects the Decaying Giant Syndrome.

The abuse of power by American Central Authority and assault on democracy started by them give testimony to this fact. PATRIOT Act mentioned above is the glaring example. Phobia of resurgence of Islam and re-Islamization also demonstrate the same truth. Aggression of Afghanistan and Iraq, and making hit list of other Muslim countries including Iran, Syria, Libya and Sudan etc. do reflect trepidation of the decaying Giant. Bush is burying democracy and making slip of tongue pronouncement of crusade. Huntington and his intellectual compatriots are supporting this state of affairs through their writings and on many occasions giving new theories by changing their old paradigms. Huntington's paradigm shift and his 'U' turn from secular democracy to religious politics and poly-tricks of Christianity are essentially connected with the disappearing American democracy and its decay syndrome.

In the process, Huntington rejects secularism and becomes frustrated on democracy. In The Clash of Civilizations (1996), Huntington observes and gives his considered opinion about the state of affairs around the globe in the following manner:

- 1) Religious revival is occurring in many parts of the world;
- 2) Unsecularization of the world is one of the dominant social facts in the late twentieth century;
- 3) A new religious approach has taken shape;

- 4) It is a rejection of the West and of the secular values;
- 5) Indigenization and revival of religion are global phenomena (pp. 95, 96, 101);

In Who Are We? (2004), Huntington observes and comes to the decision that,

- 1) In the last quarter of the twentieth century, the march toward secularism was reversed;
- 2) An almost global resurgence of religion got under way;
- 3) The twenty-first century is beginning as an age of religion;
- 4) Western secular model of the state are being challenged and replaced;
- 5) Throughout the world, secularism is being challenged by religious resurgence and eventually secularism is replaced by religion virtually (pp. 356, 357).

In Clash (1996) and in Who (2004), Huntington cannot view democracy as the standard solution as he viewed it in 1968 (Huntington, Political Order in Changing Societies). Now, facing the hard reality both at home and at international arena, he cannot avoid looking at the deep crises of democracy. He very often quotes and uses the terms ‘illiberal’, ‘chaotic’, ‘troublesome’, ‘disaffected’, ‘uncertain’, ‘crisis’ prone, ‘vanishing voter’, ‘without democrat’, ‘unrepresentative’, ‘derailed’, and ‘illusive’ about democracy. And these poor and declining pictures of secularism and democracy lead Huntington towards paradigm shift, making religion as the basis, and Clash and Conflict as catalysts.

As a matter of fact, American democracy has become a failure and America has already become a ‘failed state’ as shown by Noam Chomsky (Failed States: The Abuse of Power and the Assault of Democracy, London: Hamish Hamilton, an Imprint of Penguin Books, 2006). Because, instead of protecting and preserving human rights and civil liberties, and making protest against their violations both at home and abroad, America itself has become usurper and violator of these principles and is making utmost negative efforts to run the state in a fascist manner.

By controlling press, printing and electronic media; by curtailing human rights, civil liberties and citizen's freedom; by introducing absolutely fascist type of PATRIOT Act; by repressing public opinion and political opposition; by denying Congressional move, enquiry and access to documents; by abusing state power through series of tyrannical decisions and imposing assault on democratic norms; by introducing unprecedented espionage over citizens, foreigners and especially over Muslims both inside and outside the country; by imposing various kinds of restrictions over the movement of people; by starting state-sponsored terrorism and cover-up fugitive actions; by strengthening secret killing operations; by continuing false, heinous and derogatory propaganda against one religion (i.e. Islam) and one community (i.e. Muslims); by starting vigorous 'hit list' operations and aggressions over Muslim countries one after another; by denying internal growth failure, large scale unemployment, drug addiction, sex abuse, ethical value erosion, social unrest, and public commotion; by introducing military prominence and predominance in the state affairs; by making Pentagon, CIA and FBI extremely powerful and obviously in an imbalanced manner over others, vis-à-vis making the democratic institutions relatively impotent; by refuting equal citizenry to members of every community living as full-fledged Americans inside the country; by rejecting the so-called high ideal of secularism as the basis of American democracy and by openly and in black and white accepting Christianity as the principal founding pillar of the land and lone guiding principle of American state and social affairs; by declaring and recording American Presidential Elections one after another as religious elections; by denying the Founding Fathers' most boasted ideal of freedom; by vanishing American image as the land of liberty; by controlling the Court of Justice; and last, but not the least, by practicing electoral rigging in the election of the highest office like Presidency and involving even the Supreme Court in narrow partisanship, and introducing secret deals of corruption, rent seeking and mere money-hunting – the state structure, administration and government of America have, in effect, buried the already proved illiberal, unrepresented, derailed American democracy. Huntington's much propagated democracy is now not only vanishing, disappearing and proving itself illusive; rather it has faced its burial under the auspices of President George Bush's administration.

This scenario reflects not only the crisis of democracy; it is in fact the crisis of entire American capitalist structure and system. It is the crisis of American bourgeois political economy and erosion of ethical-social values and civilized norms, which is intellectually and politically represented by Patrick Moynihan, Zbigniew Brzezinski, Allen Greenspan, Norman Podoredge, Daniel Pipes and many others. But our present author Samuel Huntington remains no less than a central intellectual figure amongst them.

Huntington projects Muslims as 'fundamentalist', 'terrorist', 'violent', and 'indigestible' (See, Huntington, The Clash, 1996; and Who, 2004). His intellectual comrades describe Islam as 'Islamofascism' and 'Furious Islam', and Muslims as 'attackers' and 'instruments of Child and Heroine smuggling'. But, all these absolute lies and false propagandas for the sole purpose of maligning Islam cannot conceal the dirty reality of American and Western self-declared fundamentalism; cannot give cover over their incessant attacks on innocent Muslims in their societies; cannot deny the brutal aggression, bombardment, mass killing, inhuman large-scale destruction, terrorism, illegal occupation of territories, and plunder of oil, gas and other resources imposed over the Muslim countries like Afghanistan and Iraq. They cannot conceal their latest 'hit list' of the Muslim countries. Along with utter hatred against these horrible acts in the minds of the Muslims, they cannot make the world forget the dreadful memories of their terrorist groups like Ku Klux Klan, Skin Heads, Neo-Nazis, and Black Panther. They cannot even cover the negative and heinous activities of now existing and most powerful Neo-Con groups. They cannot make us forget the dreadful acts of Black Water currently engaged in Iraq. They cannot make us forget the 9/11 inside job of Bush administration on the plea of which they started 'War on Terrorism'. But this war is, in fact, hundred percent and only against Islam and Muslims all over the globe.

But, what's about their much propagated democracy? That is really now in grave clothes. Its funeral is also formalized hurriedly by Bush administration through introducing PATRIOT Act to give a new momentum for ‘old Crusade’ against the singled out arch enemy Camp – Islam and Muslims, of course under the fake and notorious banner of ‘War on Terror’. Hence, one may feel pity for President Abraham Lincoln’s definition of democracy given in the famous Gettysburg speech: Democracy is a government ‘of the people, by the people and for the people’. This definition is now changed, proved obsolete and buried by President George Bush administration. Today democracy and more clearly American democracy may, very correctly, be redefined as: Democracy is a government off the people, buy the people and fraud the people. Nowadays, America’s extreme ‘passive citizenry’ culture gives testimony to this bitter truth.

Huntington’s frustration about democracy and his paradigm shift from democracy to ‘clash’ and ‘theocracy’, in fact, reveal the truth of the deep crises that his society and state structure have been facing at the start of twenty-first century. These features essentially reflect the DGS (Decaying Giant Syndrome) faced by America even after enjoying the self-declared leadership in the present-day unipolar world.

However, though Huntington suggests secularism and democracy for the developing countries, especially for the Muslim states, he puts highest and lone priority for Christianity and wants the placement of religion over the politico-state domain of America. Huntington thus sacrifices democracy and opts for theocracy. The present mind set of Huntington and current state of affairs of America is accurately depicted by two famous journalists:

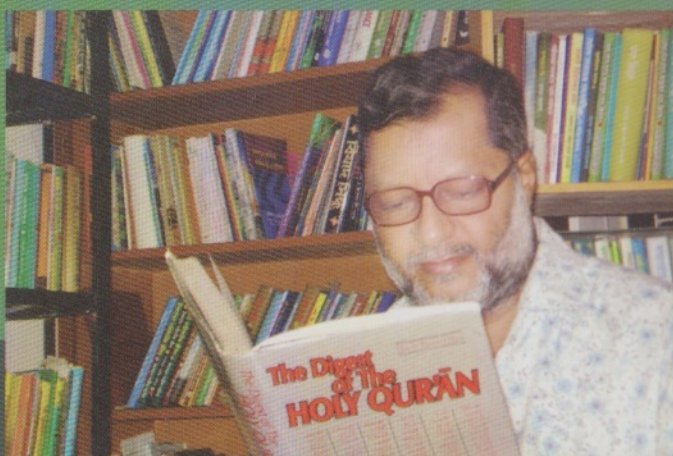

“Historians will record that between November 2000 and February 2002, democracy – as envisaged by the creators of the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution – effectively came to an end. As democracy died, the Fascist American Theocratic State was born” (John Stanton and Wayne Madsen, The Emergence of the Fascist American Theocratic State, Center for Globalization Research, 17 February 2002).

John Stanton and Wayne Madsen have honestly made this comment. But Huntington is exactly in line with American authority. So he does not find the death of democracy, he finds only deep crisis. Huntington does not observe fascism. He avidly waits for an American Theocratic State, though based on the falsehood of Christianity, as the only latest panacea for all the problems faced by it. Hence, to remove the pandemonium, to check the situation that has gone out of control, and to manage the age of turbulence, Huntington puts forward clash, remaking, shaping, and identity search theories one after another keeping intact their underneath co-relation.

Finally, Huntington gives his proposal for Christianity and Christendom led by America. In this way he starts from democracy and secularism and reaches his final destination of theocracy. This is the reflection not only of paradigm shift. It is much more than that. It is the expression of the change like 'U' turn, though the modus vivendi in the ultimate analysis remaining the same. Huntington can't come out of the purview of the social boundary and fabrics of the American bourgeoisie. The reason behind this is that his interest base and mental make-up – both are rooted in the depth of bourgeois political economy.
